1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by any private or public body that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. PAIA prescribes the procedures to be complied with regarding such a request. Section 9 of PAIA recognises that the right to access information is subject to certain justifiable limitations, for instance limitations aimed at, but not limited to the reasonable protection of privacy; commercial confidentiality; and effective, efficient and good governance.

In addition, the recently enacted Protection of Personal Information Act, No. 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”) promotes and provides for the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies. Moreover, POPIA amended certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information. Accordingly, the purpose of this PAIA Manual is to inform a person on how to obtain access to records held by PROBLAST BS (PTY) LTD and its associated companies, thereby giving effect to Section 51 of PAIA.

3. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

This manual applies to PROBLAST BS (PTY) LTD, Company Registration No: 2016/116429/07 and any associated companies, including:

- Maxigear (Pty) Ltd
- Frag Shared Services (Pty) Ltd
- ProCapture (Pty) Ltd

The PAIA manual is available at the ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd premises situated at Unit 4, 30 Alexandra Road, Queens Office Park, Centurion, South Africa and is also available on the ProBlast BS website <https://www.problastbs.co.za>

4. PURPOSE OF THE PAIA MANUAL

The purpose of this PAIA Manual is to provide a description of those records held by and on behalf of ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd; to outline the procedures to be followed as well as the applicable fees when requesting access to any of these records in the exercise of the right of access to information, with a view of enabling requesters to obtain records which they are entitled to in a quick, easy and accessible manner.

Section 9 of PAIA recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- the reasonable protection of privacy; commercial confidentiality; effective and efficient governance;
- and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including those rights as enshrined in the Bill of Rights of the Constitution.

This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of the guide mentioned in Section 10 of PAIA and recognises that upon commencement of POPIA, the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible for regulating compliance with PAIA and its accompanying regulations applicable to private and public bodies.

5. CONTACT DETAILS OF THE PROBLAST BS (PTY) LTD INFORMATION OFFICER

Responsibility for the administration of, and compliance with, PAIA and POPIA has been delegated to the ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd Information Officer (IO) and where applicable the Deputy Information Officer (DIO).

Other non-confidential records, such as statutory records maintained at the CIPC may also be accessed without the need to submit a formal application. Please schedule an appointment to view such records with the Information Officer.

8. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL

We will evaluate and consider all duly completed access requests received by ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd in terms of the regulatory provisions of PAIA and POPIA.

Publication of this PAIA Manual does not give rise to any rights to access information records, save for the regulatory provisions set out in PAIA and POPIA.

We reserve the right to refuse you access to certain records in terms of PAIA and POPIA to protect:

- the privacy of another person;
- the commercial information of a third party, if the records contain:
 - o trade secrets of that third party;
 - o financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of the third party, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; and/or
 - o information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the third party in commercial competition.
- the confidential information of a third party;
- the copyright, intellectual property or trade secrets of ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd, its associated companies and/or of a third party;
- the safety and security of property and/or individuals;
- those records deemed privileged in terms of legal proceedings;
- research information; and/or
- refuse requests to access information that are patently frivolous or vexatious, and/or involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.

On receipt of a duly completed access request form, we will endeavour to notify you in writing within 30 days as to whether your request has been approved or declined. If we cannot find any requested record, and/or it is determined that no such record exists, we shall formally notify you that it is not possible to provide access to that particular record.

9. ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURE

A requester requiring access to information held by ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd must complete the prescribed form, enclosed herewith as Annexure A and submit it to the Information Officer as per the contact details stated in paragraph 6 above as well as pay the applicable request fees.

In order to enable ourselves to provide a timely response to requests for access, all requesters should take note of the following when completing the Access Request Form:

- the Access Request Form must be completed in full;
- a full description of the records requested must be provided;

- proof of identity to authenticate the identity of the requester must be provided;
- The address (postal and email) of the requestor;
- the requester must state that they require the information to exercise or protect a right;
- the requester must clearly state the nature of the right to be exercised or protected; and
- they must specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

On receipt of a duly completed access request form, we will endeavour to notify you in writing within 30 days as to whether your request has been approved or declined. If we cannot find any requested record, and/or where it is determined that no such record exists, we shall formally notify you that it is not possible to provide access to that particular record.

10. OBJECTION AND DESTRUCTION

A data subject may request the correction and/or destruction of inaccurate, outdated, incomplete, irrelevant, or misleading personal information, and/or the deletion or destruction of personal information that is no longer necessary or unlawfully obtained, in accordance with Section 24(1) of POPIA. Annexure C form must be used to exercise ones as indicated in this paragraph.

A data subject who wishes to object to the processing of personal information may direct their objection to the Information Officer on the details set out in paragraph 6 above, during office hours and free of charge. Annexure D four substantially similar must be used to exercise the right in this paragraph.

11. ACCESS REQUEST FEES

We must be in receipt of the applicable fees in full prior to any information and records being processed and handed over to you. The Information Officer shall withhold the information and/or records until the requester has paid all outstanding fees in full.

PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely:

- A request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and

- An access fee, which is paid by all requesters if an access request is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

The schedule of fees payable is enclosed herewith in Annexure B.

12. COMPLAINTS TO THE INFORMATION REGULATOR

The requester may submit a complaint in writing to the Information Regulator, within 180 days of the decision, alleging that the decision was not in compliance with the provisions of PAIA. The Information Regulator will investigate the complaint and reach a decision which may include a decision to investigate, to take no further action or to refer the complaint to the Enforcement Committee established in terms of POPIA. The Information Regulator may serve an enforcement notice confirming, amending or setting aside the impugned decision, which must be accompanied by reasons.

13. APPLICATION TO COURT

An application to court may be brought in the ordinary course of business. For purposes of PAIA, any reference to an application to court includes an application to a Magistrates' Court.

14. THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

ProBlast BS (Pty) Ltd and its associated companies endeavour to process personal information lawfully and for specific purposes as set out below. In the first instance, we process personal information for the following categories of people:

- Customers

- operators, other responsible parties, or co-responsible parties; and
- other contracted third-party vendors to assist with maintaining our product offerings and services.

We endeavour to take all practical and reasonable measures to protect and secure personal data from damage, loss or theft, misuse through unauthorised access or disclosure, as well as unlawful processing and/or destruction. Furthermore, we take appropriate steps to maintain personal information in an accurate, complete and up-to date format as per its intended use.

15. TRANSBORDER FLOWS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION AND SECURITY

The company may, where necessary and lawful, transfer or store personal information outside the Republic of South Africa. This could include, for example, the use of secure cloud-based service providers or international business partners. Where no transborder transfer is required, personal information will continue to be stored and processed within South Africa.

Any cross-border transfer of personal information will only take place in accordance with section 72 of POPIA, which requires that:

- The recipient country, organisation, or international organisation is subject to a law, binding agreement, or corporate rules that provide an adequate level of protection; or
- The transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract, with the consent of the data subject, or for another lawful reason recognised by POPIA.

16. SECURITY MEASURES TO SAFEGUARD INFORMATION:

We have implemented the following security measures to safeguard information:

- Anti-virus
- Anti-intruder software
- Data Encryption,
